

Helloooooo Friends!

It's pretty weird, how a few small choices and a wholeeee lot of mistakes lead us to where we are now. There was no master plan or anything. You just take a path and keep walking it because it feels right and before you know it you're in the middle of something pretty insane. Our passion for doing this just keeps growing and growing. We genuinely love what we're doing and more importantly, we love who we do it with. That's all that matters really.

Anywaysss, backstory time. In 2018 Doan's 23, Alex's 27 start running a little hostel called The Light House. Built to be a bit of light for travelers passing through this place we call home. Hungry guests kept asking for food. And I mean hungrrrry. So they started making food. Questionable looking breakfast and community dinner but they threw their heart into it for seasoning with little clue what they were actually doing. But that's where the fire was lit. The moment that people actually like what you create.

That's when they decided they were going to actually do this. Turn this hostel breakfast thing into an actual restaurant. Smash burgers, full breakfasts, salads, smoothie bowls, Poke bowls, banh mi, whatever people wanted. Trying to cater to the whole world but as time progressed Bikini formed into an Americany, Canadiany, global menu, inspiration from everywhere but still with something for everyone.

They kept trying different names. La Terrasse and Somewhere Over The Rainbow were tried and tested. Eventually they landed on Bikini Bottom. Inspired by the yellow dude living it up under the sea, just doing his thing. Young, wild, free. That's what it was supposed to feel like. Having a name that sticks in your head of course helps too. Something about Bikini Bottom just worked. It said what we wanted to say without overthinking it. Home comforts, done right, no fluff. And yeah of course that cheeky little sponge drove us forward with the work ethic, the weird wisdom, the whole vibe of that world just seemed like us when we needed direction.

We're nowhere near perfect but we're still growing into this little journey. We try and do things right, bake our breads in house, butcher our own beef and try and take more of what we do into our kitchens as we go. Our beautiful team are young, full of energy and learning with us too. Still lots of adventures to have, but we're getting there step by step. Thanks for being a part of that journey with us. All we really want is for you to leave full and happy, then and only then is our job done well :)

Alex, who started this adventure back in 2018, is no longer with us and left us for the real place over the rainbow, but we continue the journey he started and keep his legacy alive through every dish served and everyone who leaves happy :)

Lots of love,

Bikini Crew :)
